WIDEN PICKETING TO GAS STATIONS

Picketing in the marine oil strike spread to Quincy today from Everett as the State Conciliation board called a conference for 4 p. m. tomorrow at the State House in an endeavor to settle the dispute.

Somerville Youths Reprieved; Death Chair 'Too Rickety'

Because the death chair in Charlestown prison is so rickety its use might cause a serious fire, Governor Saltonstall announced today a reprieve to two Somerville youths scheduled to be executed between May 7 and May 20.

Through Robert Ayres, one of his secretaries, the Governor made known his decision.

The pair, Walter St. Saviour, 22, and Wallace W. Green, 21, convicted of the 1935 murder of William Phillips, 33, father of five children, in his Somerville store last May 31, were told April 14 that the full bench of the state supreme court had rejected their final plea.

Next day, the date for their execution was set for "not less than 20, nor more than 30, days hence." This would have put the day within the ten days beginning next Monday.

REPORT CITED

Governor Saltonstall cited the report of a legislative committee investigating the need for new prisons and new prison equipment in Massachusetts, as he announced his intent to defer the execution of St. Saviour and Green.

"There is grave danger of disrupting the prison's electric system at the time of an execution," said the report.

The prison, built during Thomas Jefferson's presidency in 1803, is the oldest in the world still in use in its original form.

The governor's council approved the reprieve as soon as it was placed before it. With it was a letter from State Corrections Commissioner Arthur T. Lyman pointing out the dangers of the obsolete death chamber equipment, and a report from Ayres, who investigated the situation at the governor's request.

SWITCH 46 YEARS OLD

Ayres reported that the 46-year-old switch, used to shoot the death-dealing bolts through the chair,

W. St. Saviour Wallace Green

throws off huge sparks which might endanger, not only the life of the executioner but the lives of witnesses required to be present.

The execution day was put off until July, after Lyman had been quoted to the Council to the effect that it would require at least nine weeks to modernize Charlestown's facilities for taking life in accordance with the law. Lyman said he based his estimate on a survey by engineers.

A letter was quoted from Robert Elliott, the man at the switch in Massachusetts, as well as New York and several other states, describing the system in use here as "very dangerous."

"Charlestown is the only place in the country where an obsolete switch is used," Elliott wrote Lyman.

Lyman wrote the governor that he had originally asked for a budget allowance of $45,000 with which to modernize the death house equipment at the prison, including the old generator through which Charlestown supplies its own current for electrocutions.

Later, he said, he was able to revise the estimate down to less than $500, with the discovery that the prison could obtain the necessary power from outside, and install a regulator.

Commissioner Lyman, in a denunciation of Massachusetts prison conditions, declared that any electrocution at Charlestown was apt to cause a disastrous fire.

Gale Warning Issued Here

A northeast gale is due to lash the sea off southern New England and menace small seafaring craft as far north as Portsmouth, N. H.

In an advisory report the bureau ordered storm warnings from Block Island, R. I., to Provincetown. The storm will abate shortly after sunset, the bureau predicted.

The best weather men could offer in the way of prospects for warmth was a prediction of fair and warmer late Thursday and (or) Friday.

For the first time since the strike was called, pickets patrolled at Quincy filling stations, from two to four men being assigned to a station according to its size.

The pickets said they are seamen who walked off the Standard Oil tanker Algonquin when it docked April at the Seavoy plant, Quincy Point, after attempting vainly to dock in Everett.

As it had moved toward settling the strike, the state conciliation board sent telegrams to the Standard Oil companies of New York and New Jersey, the Malheur Steamship Company, the Tidewater Oil Company and Thomas McGowan, official of the Maritime Union, all at New York.

32 MEN FINED

They were invited to take part in, or be represented at, tomorrow afternoon's State House peace parley.

Meanwhile, 32 out of the 33 men arrested yesterday in the Everett clash with police were found guilty today in Malden court on loitering charges and were fined $10 each.

A not guilty finding was made in the case of the 33rd man, Hastings Wellington of Malden, after the court was told he had been clubbed by police and then left for four and a half hours in a cell without medical care.

Earlier in the day, Governor Saltonstall gave his assurance that National Guards and state troops will be kept out of the Everett strike area.

This followed a conference among the Governor, State Labor Commissioner James T. Moriarty and State Police Commissioner Eugene M. McSweeney.

When asked if national guards would be sent into the area to prevent a repetition of yesterday's violence, in which police used tear gas, the governor replied:

"Certainly not, and you can say certainly not."

"I have asked Mr. McSweeney to keep in touch with the situation in Everett and he said that he is in constant touch with it and that he believes the local authorities, with the aid of outside police, have the situation well in charge."

U. S. SETTLEMENT SEEN

Further, the governor said Commissioner Moriarty had been in touch with federal officials in Washington last night, as it is now believed the local difficulties can be settled until the complete strike along the whole seaboard is ended.

Headquarters both of the union and the oil companies are in New York, and thus the settlement

6-NATION BLOC HITLER'S PLAN TO ISOLATE POLAND

BERLIN, May 3 (AP)—Chancellor Hitler today sought to form a neutral bloc of at least six nations extending across northern Europe.

He offered identical non-aggression pacts to Denmark, Norway, Sweden and Finland, made similar approaches to Latvia and Estonia and there were strong reasons to believe that proposals of like nature had been submitted to a number of other European countries.

Lithuania was not included in the Reichswehr's projected northern combination because her relations to Germany are regulated by a separate treaty which contains non-aggression pledges. One object of this diplomatic activity is to isolate Poland. Hitler already feels assured that Hungary has cast her lot with Germany, even to the extent of forsaking a historic friendship with Poland, as a consequence of the Berlin visit of the Hungarian premier and foreign minister last week.

ENCIRCLEMENT BLOCKADE

Another objective of the present maneuver is to prevent further "encirclement" as the Germans call the British-French system of alliances.

A third object is said to be to show that the Nazi government is animated only by peaceful intentions.

Hopes were high in German quarters, meanwhile, that Poland would have to come to terms acceptable to Germany.

The press started at noon to bring reports from England and France indicating that the British and French publics were criticizing the Polish press for exaggerated demands for territory now German.

These hopes were further nurtured by a belief that Hungary will

Gun Forces Doctor To 'Operate or Die'

CHICAGO, May 3 (INS)—With a snarling gunman menacing his life, a physician today was forced to perform a major operation with a razor blade on a wounded bandit who with a companion had just murdered an undertaker and critically wounded two policemen.

Lured to a dingy North Side rooming house, Dr. Siegmund Hirschfeld at pistol point was ordered to "operate or die."

The physician's only instrument was a razor blade handed him by the wounded bandit's companion.

There was no anaesthetic, and the physician had only the dim light of the gunman's room to guide him during the operation.

Half an hour earlier the gunman was shot through the abdomen in a pistol battle in an attempted holdup at the Eastwood Inn, a North Side tavern.

In the gun fight Alex Ferguson, 55, who runs a mortuary, was shot and killed. Policeman Edwin McIntyre, 42, was shot in the head and seriously wounded.

also a member of the police force, was wounded four times.

Police later said the two bandits were J. A. Wilson and Edward Riley, who had come here from

KIDNAPED DOCTOR TELLS OWN STORY

By DR. SIEGMUND HIRSCHFELD

As told to International News Service

CHICAGO, May 3—After many years I have found a man who doesn't deserve to live. He is no good. And yet I did my best to save his life. It is my job.

It was the most difficult task of my career.

I performed an operation that frequently means death under the best of circumstances.

And I worked with only a razor blade as a scalpel; with nothing but hot water and what was in my kit and under the deceptive yellow glow of a bridge lamp as my light.

Behind me, with insane determination, stood a man with a gun pointed at my back. I knew for certainty that he would fire if I faltered or the life in my patient flickered out.

I had no anaesthesia. And everytime the man under me moaned when I struck some nerve center probing deeper in his body for the bullet I could feel my crazed guard was tightening his trigger finger on the gun.

It was a grueling experience and it left me cold and shaken.

It all came about without forewarning, much as the surprises in any doctor's life. I received a call from a man who posed as a friend of mine to come quickly.

Greeted by Girl and Gun-Toting Thug

When I went to the address I was met by a blonde young woman and a hard-faced red-haired man. They led me upstairs through a dingy hall. I inquired about the patient and the man shoved his revolver in my back.

"Come on, you," And he swore. "We killed one man and we'd just as soon kill another."

Inside on a bed was a dark-haired man, his face pasty with loss of blood and pain.

"Fix him up," they told me, pointing at the fellow.

Just looking at him, told me he was about dead, and a glance at his abdominal wound was enough for me to know he had to be taken to a hospital and operated on quickly.

I said as much and to my amazement the man on the bed got up on one elbow and demanded the revolver. His friend gave it to him and he pointed it at me.

"Fix me up," he said.

I shrugged. I had nothing to work with. Just the emergency equipment in my kit. They handed me a razor blade and the red-haired one said:

Operation Takes Half an Hour

"Use this. It is all we have."

I had them bring me water and clean towels and handkerchiefs. And I went at it. It took me about half an hour. I finally removed the bullet near the man's spine.

I don't see how he stood it. The pain must have been terrific. He didn't even faint. I believe he had taken drugs and that killed the pain somewhat.

As I took the bullet out, he twisted his head and muttered:

"Gimme that bullet. I'm going to send it back to the one who fired it—with interest."

Afterward the red-haired one made me stay in the room while they moved their belongings. The fever of my patient was rising. He might have died at any moment.

After nearly four hours from the time I entered the room, all three left. The man I had operated on even tried to walk out unaided. I never saw such endurance. He collapsed on the floor and his companions carried him the remainder of the way.

I waited fifteen minutes and summoned police.

GANG JOB—Chicago police today sought Ruth Freedman, who is believed to have forced doctor to operate on wounded gunman with safety razor blade such as this.

Girl Routs Prowler

NADINE HUNT

Screams of a 17-year-old Cambridge girl routed an intruder from her bedroom today in spite of a warning: "Be quiet or I'll cut your throat."

Attractive Nadine Hunt of Western avenue had retired before midnight and was sleeping soundly when a shadowy form appeared at her window and slipped noiselessly into her first-floor bedroom.

The girl stirred in her sleep as the hatless intruder advanced toward her bed, then opened her eyes sleepily as he loomed over her. Wide awake now, the girl screamed in terror and awakened her mother, Lillian, who came running to her room.

The stranger fled.

KIDNAP SUSPECT HELD IN $30,000

NORTH ANDOVER, May 3—High bail of $30,000 was set today for Roland Robinson, 19-year-old worsted weaver charged with abduction and assault with intent to attack 12-year-old Charlotte Leland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Francis Leland, Jr.

Robinson, in district court, pleaded guilty to the charge and was held for grand jury action. Meanwhile he was sent to Lawrence jail.

Neither the courageous Charlotte, who fought her way free yesterday, nor her chum, 12-year-old Joan Sweeney, were in court.

Robinson was arrested at a Lawrence mill a short time after dark headed Charlotte and her companion, Joan, daughter of a Lawrence attorney, were halted by a motorist.

The Leland child was pulled into the machine and carried a short distance before her screams and scratches won her freedom.

Police Chief Alfred H. McKee said Robinson signed "a confession" after both youngsters identified him as the attempted abductor. McKee said neither girl was harmed and that the affair was "a spur of the moment action" rather than any attempt to extort money.

Robinson's arrest came after police had questioned the girls and obtained a description.

The Sweeney girl previously had wriggled from his grasp and, jumping on her bicycle, pedaled to a nearby home to telephone her father, who notified state police.

The girls told the police chief they recalled seeing the youth stop at a house at Hillside ave., and Turnpike st., and let out a woman passenger.

He then overtook them and, when they refused his invitation to ride, jumped from the machine and attempted to abduct them.

McKee visited the house and questioned the women, who proved to be Robinson's mother. From her he learned the youth was to report for work at 3 p. m. at the mill.

The chief said he found Robinson at work and the youth showed extreme nervousness as he approached.

Brought back here, he was questioned briefly before he allegedly confessed to his participation, wrote out and signed a complete statement.

"I lost my head, I don't know why I did it," McKee quoted him as saying.

Two youths had previously been questioned and released after they proved their innocence of any connection with the attempted abduction.

The girls were enjoying a bicycle picnic on their spring vacation from school. They carried their lunches with them.

As they reached Chestnut and Rae sts., in North Andover, they dismounted from their bicycles and were looking for a spot to lunch when the youth drove up beside them.

When they refused his invitation to go for a ride, he leaped from the machine and grabbed the Sweeney girl. She twisted from his grasp, ripping her dress, and he turned on the Leland girl.

Joan ran to her bicycle and pedaled down the road to the home of Kenneth Downs, where she telephoned to her father.

Meanwhile the youth had forced Charlotte into his car, starting the motor and holding her with one hand, demanding a kiss.

She fought and scratched at him and after he had driven several hundred yards he halted the car and pushed her out.

GYPSY QUEEN DIES WHILE CLAN WARS

Open warfare broke out today between two families in the gypsy colony in Boston's South End, followed by the death of Rose Johnson, 90-year-old queen of the tribe, at the height of a police raid.

The aged woman, revered by both the feuding Johnson and Stanley factions as leader of their clan, collapsed of a heart attack in her Albion street home.

While police sent urgent radio calls for a City Hospital ambulance, "Queen Rose" steadfastly refused all medical help.

Her death was attributed to excitement caused by the bitter feud and the raid by special service police officers and patrolmen from the Warren avenue station, who took 10 Gypsies into custody.

According to police, bad blood has existed between the Gypsy families for years. In Boston, New York, Worcester and other eastern cities.

On Sunday night, Louis Stanley, 28, of Shawmut avenue, received severe gashes in the face. Police said he was struck with an ax during an argument.

Three Gypsies were questioned by police.

Then police seized 10 members of the tribe for questioning in connection with a $2200 film flamm game in Jamestown, N. Y.

It was while officers searched for the Gypsies in Albion and Nowanet streets, South End, that Queen Rose died.

Three young women were included in the group held today for questioning. Seven men were held in City Prison.

Police said one of those now in custody will be questioned in connection with the alleged kidnaping of Catherine Tan, 15-year-old Brooklyn, N. Y., girl who later returned home.

Mrs. Moore Ends Divorce Fight

She isn't going to contest the divorce granted to Raymond Moore, director of the Cape Cod Playhouse, Mrs. Marianne H. S. Moore announced today.

Instead, she will take the baby son born to her four weeks ago, two months after the play director got his decree, and depart for Hollywood to resume her original profession of nursing.

George A. Cataldo, her attorney, announced her decision, but left it rather vague by adding that "the unusual case would be settled within a week."

Mrs. Moore, who is 31, originally wanted the decree set aside so her husband could be legally compelled to support their child.

She still refuses to name the doctor who officiated at the birth of the baby, says the child was born in an apartment in upper Manhattan. Owner of the apartment, an auto salesman, says he let her have the apartment for the birth because Mrs. Moore was a friend of his sister, and he was sorry for her.

ROOSEVELT SIGNS BIG DEFENSE BILL

WASHINGTON, May 3 (AP)—President Roosevelt signed a bill today providing $153,000,000 immediately in appropriations and contract authorizations for "critical" defense items for the army, seacoast defenses and fleet expansion.

The House Naval Committee recommended, meanwhile, legislation to authorize expenditure of $6,660,000 for complete modernization of five battleships. The ships involved are the Tennessee, California, Colorado, Maryland and West Virginia.

The bill signed by the President will let the army buy and contract for $110,000,000 of tanks, anti-tank guns, semi-automatic rifles, gas masks, anti-aircraft guns, artillery and ammunition.

The navy's ship construction program gets $38,500,000, while $6,538,287 is included in appropriations and contract authorizations for seacoast defenses of the continental United States, Panama Canal Zone and insular possessions.

Relatively small sums to meet unforeseen expenses of additional government agencies brought the total of appropriations in the bill up to $162,319,959, while contract authorizations aggregated $46,801,000.

In another move to strengthen the nation's defense system, the Navy ordered today first enlistments lengthened from 4 to 6 years. The Navy announced that in future no youth under 18 would be enlisted, regardless of parental consent.

CLASH ENLIVENSTRIAL OF O'BRIEN

With lawyers roaring at each other and Judge Lewis H. Goldberg shouting vainly for order, the government concluded its case today in Suffolk Superior Court, where former Mayor James M. O'Brien of Revere is charged with larceny and embezzlement.

SECRET marriage of Eide Norena, above, Norwegian prima donna, to Henry M. Blackmer, linked to Teapot Dome oil scandal, in Paris, was revealed today.

The uproar came as Assistant Attorney General John S. Derham asked his closing witness, Miss Mary Cox, how many times she had talked with James P. Brennan, an attorney for O'Brien. Brennan leaped to his feet to protest, and in a moment the courtroom was resounding with shouts.

JUDGE SEEKS ORDER

Judge Goldberg tried vainly to restore order with repeated cries of: "Just a minute, Mr. Brennan, just a minute!"

When the attorneys finally quieted down, the judge remarked: "I'll furnish a room and a referee if necessary."

Before the government rested, Derham recalled Miss Cox, chief clerk in the Revere treasurer's office.

Miss Cox stated her memory had been refreshed by an incident yesterday afternoon. She then changed previous testimony and said Mrs. Josephine Agry, Revere resident and one of the two concerned in the tax title payments, had made a payment of $377 to her and that "some one struck off the entry on the tax title sheet."

FINDS NO ENTRY

"What did you do with the money?" she was asked. "I turned it over to Miss Farrell," she said.

Derham then asked her to consult the cash book and see if an entry was made on May 14, 1934, listing Mrs. Agry's payment.

She replied that there was no such entry made.

Among closing moves of the prosecution was the surprise call to the stand of Attorney J. Wallace Mahony, associate defense counsel for the former mayor.

Mahony was called as a government witness in connection with a shortage of $13,270.04 in O'Brien's accounts as city treasurer, a post O'Brien held prior to becoming mayor in 1935.

Mahony, former Revere city solicitor, testified he had advised O'Brien to give his successor as city treasurer, Thomas Kelly, the amount which it was claimed his accounts were short.

British Jail 2 Irish Bombers

LONDON, May 3 (AP)—Shouting "God save Ireland!" two members of the outlawed Irish Republican army were sentenced today to long prison terms for attempting to blow up the Hammersmith bridge in London.

As warders hustled him away after his 10-year sentence was pronounced, William Browne cried:

"At the end of my sentence—whether it is 10, 20 or 40 years—I'll try to do the same thing again."

John Connell, sentenced to 20 years' imprisonment, told the central criminal court judge:

"The fight will continue until the British government has withdrawn its forces from Ireland."

Steel girders of the bridge were shattered by an explosion March 29 after a London court had sentenced nine extremists of the bitterly anti-English IRA for an earlier bomb plot.

Chamberlain Makes Peace Bid to Hitler

LONDON, May 3 (AP)—Prime Minister Chamberlain told the House of Commons today that "the British government would be ready to consider proposals for the exchange of reciprocal assurances with the German government."

Denying that there were any grounds for charges that the British government had adopted a policy of "encircling Germany," Chamberlain said:

"What President Roosevelt proposed (in his April 14 peace appeal) and Herr Hitler offered (in his April 28 speech) was an exchange of assurances of non-aggression rather than a guarantee on a reciprocal basis, such as was recently given by the British government to Poland."

"The British government are certainly ready to consider proposals for the exchange of reciprocal assurances with the German government."

Meanwhile it was reported that the British cabinet had rejected Russia's proposal for a British-French-Russian guarantee to all Baltic and Black sea states.

It was reported, however, that the cabinet decided to urge the Soviet government to "renew" British-French commitments to Poland and Rumania.

POLES CRY 'DOWN HITLER!'

WARSAW, May 3 (AP)—Cries of "Down with Hitler," mingled with cheers for Polish troops parading through Warsaw today in the capital's celebration of the 148th anniversary of Poland's first constitution.

There were other shouts of "Hurrah for Polish Danzig!" and "East Prussia must be Polish!" "East Prussia is a part of Germany separated from the Reich proper by the Polish corridor. Both Germany and Poland have claims concerning the free city of Danzig, at the head of the corridor."

BECK PREPARES RETRY

Crowds jammed sidewalks along the eight-mile route of the parade and threw flowers at the clattering cavalry units and rumbling groups of mechanized weapons.

Solemn defense preparations in the face of tense relations with Germany otherwise marked the anniversary.

Foreign Minister Joseph Beck completed the draft of the speech in which he will reply before Parliament to Adolf Hitler's denunciation of the Polish non-aggression treaty, and deal with German demands for Danzig and a 15-mile-wide Germanic road across the Polish corridor.

SPEAKS ON FRIDAY

The reply will be delivered at noon (6 a. m. E. S. T.) Friday and will be a 30-minute address. Arrangements were made to broadcast it in several languages, including English, with a special transmission to the United States.

The press predicted Beck would answer Hitler's demands with a clear "no" but there was no indication he would join the opposition press in demanding a protectorate over the free city of Danzig.

Nazi Bids Seek Poles' Isolation

stick to Germany through thick and thin.

HUNGARIAN POSITION

From a man in a position to know what Hitler and the Hungarian premier and foreign minister—Counts Teleky and Csanaky—discussed, the Hungarian position shapes up as follows:

Hungary and Poland have been traditional friends.

Sentimental scenes on the Polish Carpathian front last March, when Hungarian troops were helping their way across Carpatho-Ukraine (Czecho-Slovakia) to establish a common frontier between Poland and Hungary, were genuine.

But sentiment and tradition cannot stand in the way of the hard facts of politics. The fact is that the Poles have rejected an offer from Hitler which the Hungarian government considers to have been magnanimous.

Hungary feels secure in her friendship with Germany.

POLISH MOVES UNCERTAIN

She does not know what "mistakes" Poland may make next. Hence, if a choice must be made between Poland and Germany, Hungary is ready to side with Germany. Meanwhile, Hungary fervently hopes that Poland, through Foreign Minister Beck's speech to Parliament Friday, will prove "reasonable." She has reason to believe that Premier Mussolini is urging moderation upon both Poland and Germany.

As to Slovakia, the Hungarian dream of seeing it incorporated in a greater Hungary still persists, but at present difficulties of realizing it are so great that it is the part of wisdom not to press it.

Hitler himself apparently took the initiative in the offers to the Scandinavian nations.

Warning to Spies Posted in Berlin

BERLIN, May 3 (AP)—Posters a yard high warning against espionage appeared on Berlin's subway station walls today.

Titled, "Defense Against Espionage," the posters explained what foreign spies sought, and warned that any attempt at espionage, even if unsuccessful, was punishable by death.

Hungary Hits Jews With Drastic Curbs

BUDAPEST, May 3 (AP)—Legislation limiting participation by Jews in businesses and professions was adopted in final form today by the Hungarian parliament.

The law was passed by a rising vote of the lower house. Deputies of Premier Count Teleky's party supported it almost unanimously and there was no vote the clerk merely announcing that the House had enacted one of Europe's most sweeping laws for the control of Jewish activities "by a large majority."

The upper house already had approved the final amendments so that only the signatures of the premier, who returned from discussions with German officials in Berlin, and Admiral Horthy, the regent, were required to give the law effect.

LIMITED PERCENTAGES

Broadly speaking, the participation by Jews in business and professions was limited to 5 to 12 per cent of the total number of persons engaged in the various callings.

The usual percentage for business and industry was 12 per cent, while for the professions the proportion in most cases was 5 per cent.

Some occupations were closed entirely to Jews. None is to be allowed in public or government service. Jews may hold no leading position in journalism, the theater or the movies. Farm land in excess of a half acre owned by Jews may be appropriated by the state with compensation.

The franchise of Jews was limited. They may vote only for a list of Jewish candidates, and the Jewish members of Parliament may not exceed 5 per cent of the total membership.

750,000 AFFECTED

It was expected that elections, probably to be conducted this month, would be carried out under the provision of the new statute.

The control legislation probably will affect upward of 750,000 Hungarian Jews, but the number could not be stated precisely because of last-minute changes in the definition of who is to be regarded as a Jew. (The estimated Hungarian population is 10,000,000.)

Exempted from the operation of the law are all Jews whose forebears have been Hungarians since 1848 and who professed the Christian religion in 1919 or before.

The liberalization of the definition was demanded by the more tolerant upper house and the amendment spared thousands from the operation of the law.

WAR HEROES EXCEPTED

The lower house refused to accept an amendment of the upper house providing that 150 Jews who had performed outstanding patriotic or other meritorious services be exempt, but a provision exempting war heroes was retained. Parliament sought to avoid undue suffering and economic dislocation by providing that the law be put into effect in stages over a five-year period.

Medical, theatrical and journalistic organizations started ousting Jewish members. About 300 Jewish newspapermen were informed that they must relinquish their positions on Hungarian newspapers before January 1, 1940.

Portugal King's Widow Weds Swede

STOCKHOLM, May 3 (AP)—The marriage of Princess Augusta Victoria of Hohenzollern, widow of former King Manoel of Portugal, and Count Robert Douglas of Sweden, was announced today.

Douglas is the descendant of a Scottish family which emigrated to Sweden in the 16th century. The marriage was performed at Baden, Germany.

Manoel II, the last king of Portugal, died July 2, 1932. Portugal became a republic in 1910.

See Pact Near For Palestine

JERUSALEM, May 3 (AP)—Early publication of a British white paper outlining the "final" solution for Palestine was predicted today by a reliable source.

The British plan, drawn up during a conference with Arabs and Jews in London, has been described unofficially as calling for an independent Arab state in Palestine with Jews constituting a permanent minority. The Jewish delegation to the conference rejected it March 16.

Britain Denies Greek Attack

LONDON, May 3 (AP)—The British government formally denied in Commons today reports that a British warship had fired on a Greek ship carrying refugees to Palestine, killing one of the refugees and injuring two.

Lieutenant-Colonel J. J. Llewellyn, civil lord of the admiralty, replying to Laborite Member Josiah Clement Wedgwood, said amid cheers that the "allegations are without foundation and none of His Majesty's ships has fired on a Greek vessel or any other."

Nazi Anti-Jew Leader Goes Under Knife

Saltonstall's First Pardon Saves Hub Man From Exile

Governor Saltonstall today made his first pardon recommendation since taking office, although he has received more than 250 pardon petitions to date.

To prevent the man's deportation to Ireland as an undesirable alien, the Governor asked the Executive Council to grant a full pardon to Michael Foley, 24, of Dedham st., South End, father of one child.

Foley was recently paroled from Concord state reformatory, and the pardon, though leaving him under the supervision of the parole board, would prevent his being deported.

Foley, who was taken into custody immediately on his release from Concord reformatory March 37, under the law providing mandatory deportation of aliens convicted of two felonies, was given an indeterminate sentence in Suffolk Superior Court in 1937 on counts of house breaking, larceny, and possessing burglar's tools. The prisoner told the court that he had stolen only to keep his wife and children from starving.

The parole board, in concurring with Corrections Commissioner Arthur T. Lyman and the prisoner's friends in recommending the pardon, said apparently Foley's failure to find a job was responsible for his transgressions.

He had no police record prior to his conviction.

Neighbors have obtained a position with a construction company for Foley, who has been in the United States since he was ten years old.

Governor Saltonstall said he was recommending the pardon "in order to prevent the breaking up of a family and to permit this man to support his family."

He pointed out that since Foley is assured of a job, and will remain under parole supervision, the public is "amply protected."

"It seems clear that humanity, as well as the good of the state calls for this pardon," said Governor Saltonstall.

"His family, who are all citizens, want him with them, and without his support, they would be a potential financial burden on the state. This is a case where mercy and social welfare appear to be identical.

"This man has an opportunity to demonstrate the proper functioning of the parole system."

Tangled affairs of Mrs. Julia Postizzi-Kelley burst into Roxbury court again today where Leo G. Kelley was charged with swearing at her. He denied the charge, admitted trying to see his son, and was found not guilty.

COURT ACQUITS HIM OF ANNOYING 'WIFE'

The marital affairs of the Postizzi and the Kelleys, scrambled by two polygamous marriages, a child by one, an adopted child in the other, and a pending divorce found their way into court again today.

This time Leo G. Kelley of Roxbury, who married Mrs. Julia Postizzi of Woodville street, Roxbury after she believed her husband had divorced her, was in court on charges of annoying the mother of his child.

After Kelley had denied swearing at Mrs. Postizzi Kelley, although admitting he had several times tried to see his child, Judge Delay in Roxbury court found him not guilty.

Kelley testified he had accused Mrs. Postizzi of buying liquor with the money she receives on welfare relief, and that Mrs. Postizzi had thereupon claimed he had annoyed her by bringing a police sergeant to her room in the early hours of a certain morning.

The marital tangle developed after Mrs. Postizzi's separation from Charles Postizzi, whom she married in Providence in 1936.

Each, thinking the other had obtained a divorce, married again, Postizzi a Mary Pellegrini.

The Kelleys had a child and the Postizzi adopted one.

The lack of a divorce to make either second marriage legal was discovered during an investigation of the adoption by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

An agent of this society subsequently revealed that Postizzi is voluntarily supporting Miss Pellegrini and their adopted child and has filed suit for divorce against Mrs. Julia Postizzi.

Coroner Holds Girl Killer of Crippled Baby

PHILADELPHIA, May 3 (AP).—Coroner Charles H. Hensch held Camilla Katchko, 27, of New York, "criminally responsible" today for the drowning of a baby whose body she handed detectives Monday.

Detective Adam Sadorf testified she told him she killed the 10-day-old baby in Brooklyn, clothed its body and carried it in her arms during a bus ride to Philadelphia.

He said she told him the baby would have been a cripple.

She has been held on a charge of homicide.

Two Riot Victims Better

Two Spanish Union members, recovering from head injuries and cuts of their gas received in the May 1 riot, were revealed today to be among those scheduled to receive heroism medals for their part in the rescue of survivors of the ill-fated Bermuda air liner crash.

They are Stanley Taylor, 22, School street, Charlestown, and J. J. Goodwin of Gloucester who dove into the thick of the riotous crowd, carrying coffee and tea to the pickets.

Both were members of the Spanish Union. Taylor was one of the first to go to the aid of the British Imperial Airways flying boat lost helplessly in mid-Atlantic.

The pair will go to New York next Saturday, to be presented with their gold medals at the World Fair. Mayor LaGuardia is to make the presentation.

Taylor appeared at the Maritime Union hall in Fostler street with his face bandaged and still groggy from the effects of the gas. He said he had been slugged. Goodwin was so seriously injured that he was unable to be taken to the hospital.

Picketing Spreads To Quincy in Strike

probably will be a federal matter, according to Saltonstall.

Meanwhile, Mayor Frank E. Lewis of Everett, commenting on the police action, said today:

"It has always been my practice to allow the chief to run the police department, realizing that he knows police work better than I.

"Any action which has been taken in this strike has been to preserve law and order. I have no objection, nor have the police any objection, to peaceful picketing, but after several cases of violence by the strikers the police had no alternative other than to drive them out of the city.

PLANS PEACE CONFERENCE

"I am going to confer today with representatives of the Governor's office and the labor board in an attempt to bring about peace between the police and the strikers."

During new outbreaks of strike violence, three Boston police boats loaded with heavily armed officers today were ordered to patrol the inner harbor.

While the Everett waterfront took on the grim aspect of a military zone, with police from a dozen cities watching the movements of CIO pickets, some wearing gas masks, heavy marine guards were established around oil tankers anchored off shore.

The police boats Pierce, Crowley and McHugh were called into service shortly after midnight, when tips were received that trouble might occur near or on the tankers under cover of the heavy night fog.

34 FACE CUTS

Metropolitan police launched a search for extra details of emergency use and extra details of the city's 40 officers were sent at daybreak to patrol the scenes of yesterday's riot in Everett, where police had 200 strikers and arrested more than 100.

Thirty-three of the Everett strikers faced charges of disturbing the peace in Malden District Court today, while four who fled across an Allied street bridge to be arrested by Boston police were due to appear in Charlestown court.

Apprehensive over the threatening situation, Everett's board of aldermen prepared to hold a meeting today to investigate strike-breaking activities. Mayor Lewis and Police Chief Kenney will be questioned by the aldermen.

On the governor's orders, metropolitan police reinforced Everett tonight in keeping order along picket lines during the night, while State Police Lieutenant Detectives Edward P. Sherlock and Joseph Scavone investigated the strike situation.

Officials of the National Marine Union stood by their claims that their picket lines were established legally and that replacements, fully equipped with tear gas masks, will form a new line against any police action.

Union leaders charged police with acting unjustly by equipping strikers with tear gas masks to board the tankers. They sent telegrams to U. S. Attorney General Frank Murphy demanding government intervention just as Governor Saltonstall took action.

Thomas McGowan, head of the United Wood Men play.

"Everett, Mass., police shot hundreds of tear gas bombs and bullets at strikers, small children and women. Close to 100 of our men were injured and gassed in violation of the Hyman Act. The attack by police defied description. Need your help."

Copies of the telegram were sent to Asst. Atty. Gen. Bryant M. Manu, Ralph Emerson, head of the National Union of Maritime Workers; John L. Lewis, head of the CIO; Sen. David I. Walsh, and Sen. Robert La Follette, as head of the Civil Liberties League.

Scores of "innocent bystanders," including many mothers with their children in Lynde at park, were affected by the gas hurled by police.

Among those most seriously affected were Mrs. Evelyn Ganno of Kippys at, and her son, Leo, 8. Mrs. Ganno complained later to Chief Kenney that she and her child and other mothers and children watching a ball game were gassed, though they had nothing to do with the picketing.

A score of Everett youths engaged in a ball game on the field were gassed.

Police themselves did not escape the gas as defiant pickets picked up the bombs as fast as they were hurled and flung them back into the ranks of the bluecoats.

Police patrols from Malden, Somerville, Boston, Everett, Chelsea, Cambridge, Lawrence and Lynn were called as the officers raced through the blindly staggering ranks of pickets, avoiding them and herding them into the patrol cars.

More than 100 were arrested, many being taken to other stations, as that in Everett became crowded.

HEARINGS ON BACKUS ORDERED

After a two-hour executive session, the five members of the state public utilities commission voted today to hold hearings for Security Division Director John H. Backus on formal charges filed by Governor Saltonstall.

The commission declined to state whether hearings will be public or private.

Fate of Backus' $500-a-year job lies entirely in the hands of the five commission members, all appointed under previous state administrations.

Commissioners refused to reveal whether or not their vote to try Backus was unanimous.

The commission stated that Backus not only made false statements to him in his 1936 report but also impugned the governor's motives and implied it was for personal reasons that abolition was sought of the so-called "Blue Sky" division which Backus heads.

"In my opinion this is improper conduct for any official of our state government and is sufficient cause for immediate attention," Saltonstall wrote the commissioners.

Jersey M. Lands, 25, of Manhattan, N. Y., was today announced as the winner of the 1939 Pulitzer Prize for fiction.

For "The Wayward Bus," a novel about a bus driver who has been wandering around the world since the war, Lands' book has been chosen by a panel of judges. The book is 112 pages and measures the required 5 feet, seven inches.

Two years ago, Lands failed by a fraction of an inch but "stretched out" to the required measurements after admittations of a chiropractor, he disclosed.

SEEING IS BELIEVING!

It's smart, popular...
a striking way
to compare cigarettes...
AMERICAN AIRLINES PILOT
GIVES A DEMONSTRATION...

SMOKERS... everywhere... are comparing cigarettes by watching them burn! At the right, O. J. Brown, pilot for American Airlines, shows how one leading cigarette, compared to others, burns much slower! It's a C-A-M-E-L! Camels win in this comparison by a wide margin. The reason: Costlier tobaccos... carefully blended... in a cigarette made to burn slowly, completely and smoke cool, mild!

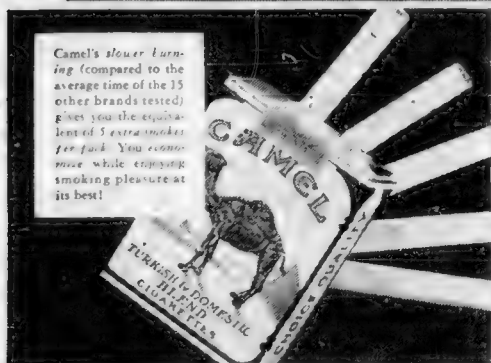

Recently a group of scientists made the interesting laboratory test on a larger scale. 16 of the largest-selling cigarette brands were tested impartially. CAMELS BURNED SLOWER THAN ANY OTHER BRAND TESTED—25% SLOWER THAN THE AVERAGE TIME FOR THE OTHER BRANDS. (Camels were remarkably consistent. Cigarettes of some brands smoked twice as fast as others right from the same pack.) IN THE SAME TEST, CAMELS HELD THEIR ASH FAR LONGER THAN THE AVERAGE TIME FOR ALL OTHER BRANDS.

Camel is the cigarette of costlier tobaccos... cool, mellow, appealing in taste, so uniformly delightful!

"There it is again," veteran pilot O. J. Brown exclaims to a group of friends, "...the Camel is burning slower than the other cigarette. To me, that's a perfect explanation of why Camels smoke so cool and mild. It must have a lot to do with the delicate, pleasing taste of Camels, too!"

SMOKING IS BELIEVING!

Camel's slower burning (compared to the average time of the 15 other brands tested) gives you the equivalent of 5 extra smokes per pack. You can smoke while enjoying smoking pleasure at its best!

TRY Camels for a really thrilling smoking experience... fragrance, ripe taste, mildness! Camels give every thing you want in a smoke... including ECONOMY!

Camels have more tobacco by weight than the average of the 15 other brands tested. Besides, Camels burn slower than any of those other brands. And by burning 25% slower than the average of the 15 other of the largest-selling brands, Camels give you the equivalent of 5 extra smokes per pack!

Camels give you even more for your money when you count in Camel's finer, more expensive tobaccos. Buy shrewdly! Buy Camels... America's first choice for a luxury smoke every smoker can afford!

COPS GO COLLEGIATE, ROXBURY LAD TAPPED

One of the most interesting developments in the history of the police department of the City of Boston was the tapping of a telephone line in the home of a young man in Roxbury, who was charged with the murder of a woman.

The tapping was done by a team of police officers who were working on a case involving the murder of a woman. The officers were able to tap the line without the knowledge of the man living in the house.

Also he had staked in the matter of some bad checks, police said in a formal charge when he was caught up with him at the 22nd street-Clark wedding in Nahant.

Palpat said first he didn't do it, and then he said he bought the car. The lineup ended with the police "tush-tush" and placing Harold back on the ice for later action.

Austen Lake: Frisch Has Aerial View of His Cards

FRANKIE FRISCH, THE EX-BODY BOSS of the St. Louis Cardinals, sits in a roof coop at Bees Field, spouting radiations about his old hired hands. Down on the turf a game is going on, a game in which Frankie was accustomed to storm from the dugout and chin-chop uncouth words 'neath the noses of the umpires, or make such sotto voce curses as the occasion warranted.

AUSTEN LAKE

But now Frankie is hobbled by a parlor language. Does Johnny Mize, the heavy duty first baseman, take an infield divot with his chin, Frankie need no longer say to the assembled bench sitters, "Now look'th' tanglefooted bum. Jeepers! . . ." No! Frankie wreathes his puss in a beatific smirk and utters a property chuckle into the little electric nozzle. He says, "Heh-heh, folks . . . a pardonable bobble . . . came on Johnny's blind side . . . we used to call that a base on stones on account of it hit a pebble or something . . . Heh-Heh!"

Or does Ducky Medwick, the red-necked outfielder, get his thumb caught in his belt loop while chasing a fly ball, Frankie will not rear and yank fistfuls of fuzz from his thinning scalp. He won't grind any sparks with his molars. No sir! Franklin will put on his merriest murmur and say, "Lands sakes alive . . . that was a wicked liner Ducky missed . . . Good ol' Ducky don't miss many . . . an' folks don't forget to fill up with that sassy spark gasoline and gallop to glory."

The Cordial Life!

TIMES HAVE CHANGED FOR FRANKIE. Today, instead of gnawing the lining from his lips and fretting in the sub-sea levels of his soul, Frankie sits aloft and exercises his larynx in his best Meow accent—a bit of Donald Duck and a bit of fonal brass. Do the Cardinals kick a close bat game, Frankie doesn't go back to his hotel and stuff bed quilts in his mouth to keep his hollers from echoing down the elevator shaft. He doesn't call the home office on the telephone and apologize "goodness! I master minded my best, but how was I to know Brown and White that fat pitch to Simmons? Well, tomorrow is another day, boss."

Frankie just pours himself a bit of amber nourishment, cocks his heels on the window sill and dreams over the Back Bay roofs. A ball game a day, green grass all around, $15,000 for five months' work, two hours an afternoon, and nothing to do till tomorrow. A deadly grind, my friends.

A year ago Frankie brought his Cardinals to Boston. He occupied

Despite the fact that today's game with the St. Louis Cardinals was called off because of cold and threatening weather, the Sox will soon be riding the roost when Hal McKinnis leads the rubber game tomorrow for a three-game series in which the leadership of the league will be at stake.

Cardinals' pitcher, who was the losing pitcher in the first game, will be the starter in the second game.

Against the Sox, the Cardinals will have a lineup of players who are expected to be in the lineup.

Rode Best Horses For Col. Bradley

Jockey Don Meade in previous articles revealed how he bet against his own horses, but he declared he often beat the mount on which he wagered. He denied "fixing" races or pulling horses. Don told of his early riding career and how he topped the apprentice jockeys at New Orleans. Continued on another page today.

By DON MEADE

(As told to Dave Wilson and Jack Conway)

The Winter of 1931 found me riding in Cuba. The crowds at the races at Havana were very excitable, and even when there was rough riding the stewards seldom took a number down. Such action was always liable to start a riot.

Gehrig Dazed As He Broods Over Quitting

By SID MERCER

International News Service Sports Writer

DETROIT, May 3 (INS)—Lou Gehrig still is in a daze today. He cannot visualize himself as captain of the Yankees without first-base portfolio. It seems like a bad dream to him.

Yet it is more than probable that the iron horse has galloped for the last time over the track he pounded for 14 years.

REPLACED WALLY PIPP

A strange reaction has followed Gehrig's action in benching himself and ending what probably will be an all-time record after playing 2130 consecutive games for the Yankees starting on June 1, 1925, when he replaced Wally Pipp at first base.

"I imagine everybody is putting the finger on me," he said after yesterday's game. "They seem to be pointing at me and saying, 'There's the fellow who let the Yankees down.'"

"I have that feeling when I walk down the street or notice people looking at me in the hotel lobby. I just can't get used to thinking things are not what they used to be."

RETURN DOUBTFUL

Lou hopes a rest the removal of the consecutive game strain and warm weather will bring him back. However, it is doubtful if he ever plays another game for the Yankees. He went as far as he could and quit before he provoked the heart-breaking news to and of course it's the only thing to do. I believe I can make good, for there'll never be another like Lou. I failed with the Red Sox, but my seasons in Syracuse and Newark made me a better hitter. I've taken on weight and I expect to hit well enough to stay in there."

"Of course I'm sorry about Gehrig," says Babe Dahlgren, on the job at first base now. "But that's baseball. I'm going to give him this opportunity every time he gets. Gehrig wants me to and of course it's the only thing to do. I believe I can make good, for there'll never be another like Lou. I failed with the Red Sox, but my seasons in Syracuse and Newark made me a better hitter. I've taken on weight and I expect to hit well enough to stay in there."

GAVE HIS ALL.

Joe McCarthy is relieved. He had made up his mind not to bench Gehrig in New York nor on the road unless circumstances forced his hand.

"I owed that much to him," says the manager. "He gave me everything he had. I owed all along. Lou would make the decision himself and not force me to it."

Gehrig was so affected by a demonstration of fan loyalty before yesterday's game that he marched quickly to the dugout, and while pretending to linger over a drink of water, shed a few tears.

"Yes, I blubbered," he admits.

Mrs. Gehrig Points To Fox's Comeback

LARCHMONT, N. Y., May 3 (INS)—After all, Jimmy Fox had an awful year—worse than Lou, and look how he came out.

"The sunshine shouted spring, but Mrs. Lou Gehrig knew that autumn had come at last to her husband's career and she made no attempt to hide from its bleak truth. Her reference to Fox was the one concession she made to hope."

"It was naturally a heartache to face such a decision," his wife, Eleanor, said of the ending of his 5-season streak of 230 consecutive games. "But we muffled it over all day and when he left for Detroit at night he had his mind made up. There was nothing definite said between us. He told me what he thought and we came to the general conclusion it would be best for him to approach Joe McCarthy."

"I was terribly proud when word came through that he was out. It did a damned honorable thing."

Danny Loses Close Contest

Swarm's bats as attested by the 10 runners left stranded. Twice the bases being loaded with strength at the plate but none to come through in a rescue role.

An unknown, a kid named Bobby Bowman who moved into the Gas House Gang via the Cards' Rochester farm, proved the home run king, despite the fact that this surprising rookie got himself into heaps of trouble.

Starting the first game of his major league career, Bowman caught the Boston in a let-down moment. Perhaps they might have been influenced by a superiority complex, what with having polished off the Giants three running, and with a fresh youngster coming along to make of himself a sacrificial offering.

Bowman missed just one pitch of finishing what he started. Manager Ray Blades, his former Rochester boss and now Frankie Frisch's successor at St. Louis, calling in Lou Warneke from the bullpen when Bowman had a count of 3 and 2 on Johnny Cooney, with two gone in the ninth and Al Lopez teetering on third with the tying tally.

Warneke, fresh off his recent superb achievement when he held the Cubs to one lone hit over the route distance, split the center of the plate with a hard one which the usually dependable Cooney hasn't seen yet and the game was lost beyond recall, first Bees' defeat in the matter of almost a week.

FRANKLIN SCORES

NEW YORK, May 3 (AP)—Walter Franklin, young New York mid-winterer, had little trouble out-punching Babe Orgovan of Houston, Tex., in an eight-round bout before 5000 fans at the Coliseum.

HASSETT SET FOR SERVICE

By WALTER KILEY

It is the Bees' good fortune that they're still sitting pretty in the early season pennant race. As all the other first division clubs were likewise being humbled, the while our Swarm dropped their first of five home games this new diamond campaign.

Danny MacFayden, in his opening defeat, turned in a more impressive performance than in either of his victories. Buddy Hassett's return to the war shortly loomed when he pinch-hit for MacFayden, banded finger and all. Ralph Hodgins, left handed batting rookie from Evansville, finally crashed the lineup when he hit for Warbler in the ninth.

That the Yankees have been needlessly worried over the loss of Joe DiMaggio and the benching of Lou Gehrig was shown by the savage mauling they gave the Tigers with a patched-up lineup. Charlie Keller, Newark's sensational outfielder gave the boys something to cheer about when he connected for a home run and ripped scored four runs, batted in six.

Teddy Williams Ready to Face Indians

CLEVELAND, May 3—The Red Sox will try again to launch their brief series with the Indians here this afternoon, with Eldon Auker still the nominee to do the hurting in what will be the first and last game in this cold-weather city.

Boze Joe Cronin of the Bostonians is sorry to see so many later season doubleheaders piling up. But what with him, himself, Teddy Williams, Emerson Dickman and Boze Berger, his understudy, around with colds, he was satisfied that the Cleveland opener was postponed despite the fact that afternoon conditions were ideal for a game.

Cronin now appears to be worse off physically than any of his charges. He nursed a sore throat and a nasty cold all last night. But fortunately Williams who has been ailing for several days, has come back as well as ever and ready to enter into the spirit of hitting with all his raring abandon.

The Red Sox, however, lost ground during their idleness, the Yankees, without their DiMaggio and Gehrig, mauling the helpless Tigers, and the White Sox forging into a fraction lead over the third place Bostonians when they took the Senators into camp.

Willie Hutton, usually reliable veteran, has been picked by Manager Oscar Vitt of the Indians to oppose Submarine Auker this p. m.

BUDDY HASSETT

... and generally disported himself defensively like a seasoned veteran out there in left field.

... "Gallopin' Lou, looked like Gehrig at his best with a double and homer, a pair of runs and batting in two more.

... Babe leaves little to be desired in his fielding, either. He's a wow on ground balls.

Lefty Bob Weiland who hurled today for the Cards, once boasted a Fenway Park address. Vince DiMaggio, whose center fielding was awe-inspiring, but whose hitting was pathetic for the Bees, is now leading the American Association with 10 runs-batted-in.

Johnny Niggeling of Indianapolis and Johnny Eabich of Kansas City, both former Bees, are setting the pitching pace in the same loop with two wins and no losses.

Arnold Stutz, old Holy Cross friend and once the Giants' leading golfer, is doing all right with Los Angeles. He's second leading hitter of the Coast League with 412, 46 hits in 97 trips.

HENRY DOING WELL

Henry Marble of the Hollywood Club follows the athletic heights reached by Sister Mary, tennis champion, as he helped himself to five hits in five times up last week. Blondy Ryan, the "They can't beat us" boy of the Giants' pennant series, now managing the Clinton Iowa, team of the 3 I League and sending condolences to Bill Terry.

They're telling how Tony Cuculullo, one of the great second basemen of the majors, had a hard upward climb to diamond fame.

who, he first reported to Danville in 1928, there were no many promising rookies on the squad fearing that "Goose" had to wear uniform No. 155.

Bo Bowman who beat the Bees for St. Louis is an alumnus of Rochester. . . . where he had 11 wins, seven losses last season. . . . and a 3.11 earned run average. . . . Ray Blades who managed him last year and then moved him to the Cards when he, too, graduated, is high on the youngster. . . .

BOWMAN EX-MINER

Bowman mines coal in the West Virginia hills in the winter. . . . his best Rochester effort was a four-hit performance against Syracuse. . . . this is only his second season in pro ball.

Blades is a most uncommunicative soul. . . . as newspapermen have found out when they tried to query him on the Cards' chances. . . . He's utterly lacking the personality which distinguished Frisch in his game years. . . . incidentally the Cards had a portable radio tuned into their dugout to listen in on their former manager's broadcast of the opening game.

Herman Franks, rookie catcher with the Cards, will be lost to the club for weeks. . . . result of catching his spikes in the bag at first. . . . he had to be aided off the field. . . . and today has the leg X-rayed. . . . Johnny Cooney came up with one of his fielding gems when he appeared and Johnny Mize's low dropping looper, one handed and at full tilt, in short center. . . .

Rabbit, Warbler. . . . insisted he touched Don Gutteridge at third in that critical ninth inning when the Cards had the bags loaded. . . . Al Lopez caught fleet Don off the bag with a snap throw and the Rabbit seemed from the stands to have made the putout. . . . but it was no go.

Kaplan at Work
For Cocoa Kid
In Return Bout

Mike Kaplan of Dorchester was back in the gym at hard work today because he is going to fight Cocoa Kid again for the Goodwin A. C. at the Boston Garden a week from Friday night, May 12.

Confident that he can thump out a victory over the sick Negro boxer, former New England welterweight champion Kaplan signed yesterday with matchmaker Rip Valenti, the bout calling for 10 rounds.

They collided at the Arena a few weeks ago and Kaplan was on the short end of the betting, his friends feeling that Louis Cocoa Kid Hardwick, a crafty, clouting veteran, would prove too much for him.

But Kaplan came up with another of his amazing fights that evening and finished in a draw, although hundreds felt he could have been awarded the decision.

That was regarded as Kaplan's "toughest fight" but he came through like a veteran and this is another reason why Kaplan is looked upon by experts and fans as the No. 1 flaccid prospect in this territory.

A bit timid at the start—possibly because he had great respect for the Cocoa Kid as almost all fighters have—Kaplan was slow getting under way.

GET ACQUAINTED, MAN! You may be seeing a lot of this left: duke of Lou Nova when you enter the Yankee Stadium, June 1. Baer and Nova met at the New York Boxing Commission office where they were both given a passing mark in their physical examination.

If you've never been to Derby Town during Derby week, the best parallel might be drawn from a World Series city, or Philadelphia on New Year's morning with its mummers' parade, or even an American Legion Convention. Definitely this is holiday.

For 51 weeks, the world and its troubles may take their toll, but for these seven days of the spirit of "My Old Kentucky Home," this area is 100 per cent "horsey," from the roots of the blue grass right

Journey's End—Alone with his thoughts, "Iron Man" Lou Gehrig sits in the dugout at Detroit, a self-made exile from the New York lineup . . . an exile after 14 solid years of play, 2130 consecutive games. The "Iron Man" started his streak in June, 1925, when he went into Yankee lineup at first base, ended it yesterday when he asked Manager Joe McCarthy to remove him for good of the team.
